

European Constitutional Law Network

In collaboration with the Jean Monnet Chair for European Constitutional Law of the Law School of the Aristotle University of Thessaloniki (AUTH)

WORKSHOP

“Challenging the Legitimacy of Europe”

Dimitris Tsatsos in memoriam

Makedonia Palace Hotel, Thessaloniki, Greece

Thursday, May 21st

13.15 – 13.30 Welcome greeting by

- the Dean of the Law School of AUTH, Prof Yorgos Dellios
- Lina Papadopoulou, Associate Professor, Jean Monnet Chair of Law School AUTH

13.30 – 14.00: Introducing Ourselves over Coffee and Snacks

14.00 – 16.00: New Challenges for European Democracy

Chair: Prof Tom Eijsbouts

1. Georgios Gerapetritis, Models of deliberative democracy beyond the state (14.00 – 14.20)
2. Ingolf Pernice, E-Government and E-Democracy: Overcoming Legitimacy Deficits in a Digital Europe (14.20 – 14.40)
3. Giacinto della Cananea, Old democratic principles revisited: No representation without taxation (14.40 – 15.00)

Discussion 15.00 – 16.00

16.00 – 16.30 Break (Coffee & Snacks)

16.30 – 18.30: Citizens and Rights

Chair: Prof Ingolf Pernice

4. Tom Eijsbouts, The notions of peoples and citizens in EU law (16.30 – 16.50)
5. Anna Maria Konsta, Gender, extended citizenship rights and limitations of citizenship in EU Law (16.50 – 17.10)
6. Ana Maria Guerra Martins, Opinion 2/13 of the CJEU – quo vadis multilevel protection of fundamental rights? (17.10 – 17.30)

Discussion (17.30 – 18.30)

18.30 – 19.00 ECLN Members' only meeting for organization purposes

19.30: Departure to dinner (only for speakers - invited by Goethe Institut, Thessaloniki)

Friday, May 22nd

10.00 – 11.20: The legitimacy of European economic constitutionalism

Chair: Prof. Ana Maria Guerra Martins

1. George Karavokyris, The role of judges and legislators in the financial crisis: a matter of competence (10.00 – 10.20)
2. Federico Fabbrini, The Euro-Crisis and the Challenges of Legislating in the EU: Designing a Legislative Process Fit to Govern Economic and Monetary Union (10.20 – 10.40)
3. Discussion (10.40- 11.20)

11.20 – 11.40: Break (coffee and snacks)

11.40 – 13.00: Economic measures and legitimacy of European Courts

Chair: Prof. Giacinto della Cananea

4. Jean-Victor Louis, The Outright Monetary Transactions (OMT) judgment (11.40 -12.00)
 5. Roberto Miccù, The Eurozone Crisis and the European Constitutional Identity (12.00 -12.20)
- Discussion (12.20 – 13.00)

13.00 – 14.00 Lunch for all the participants

14.00 – 16.00 The legitimacy of Europe from a national point of view

Chair: Jean-Victor Louis

6. Jiří Zemánek, Material core of the constitution: a national-identity-based limit of European integration or an incarnation of shared European values? (14.00 – 14.20)
7. Antonis Manitakis, The Greek Constitutional State in Times of Crisis: endurance of Constitutional Democracy as opposed to the failure of a formal constitutional interpretation (14.20 – 14.40)
8. Lina Papadopoulou, Between the Golden Rule and the Golden Dawn: Greeks' Challenging Europe's legitimacy (14.40 – 15.00)

Discussion (15.00 – 16.00)

16.00 – 16.15 Ingolf Pernice Conclusions

16.15 – 16.45 Coffee & snacks

End of Workshop

17.00 – 20.00: Sightseeing bus tour (Guests will be guided to the restaurant where dinner is going to be offered)

20.00 Dinner (only for Speakers - invited by the Jean Monnet Chair for European Constitutional Law and Culture)

Supported by:

